

Five years and £350m up for The Collection LLP

A property search consultancy set up by former Black Brick Associate Partner Caroline Takla has been celebrating hitting the £350m mark after five years in business.

Based in Mayfair, independent buying outfit The Collection LLP has announced the completion of £350m worth of acquisitions since its inception in 2009.

Prior to setting up the Middle East desk at Camilla Dell's buying firm Black Brick, Takla held senior positions at Hampton's International and Chesterton Global. A fluent Arabic speaker, her clients have since included high profile global entrepreneurs and investors, celebrity actors and Middle Eastern royalty.

Recent acquisitions have included properties in The Lancasters by Hyde Park, on Cadogan Court Gardens in Knightsbridge and on South Street in Mayfair.

Founder and Managing Partner Caroline Takla: "I would like to thank my clients for their support, it has been a pleasure serving each and every one of them. I set up this business as I saw a gap in the market to create a truly bespoke service that leverages our combined 60 years' experience to assist our clients with every aspect of the property ownership lifecycle, in a discreet, flexible and highly responsive manner. Reaching this landmark is testament to the whole team's unparalleled commitment to delivering outstanding service to our clients."

